

TRANEXAMIC ACID

Only to be administered if suitably trained and competent to do so

PRESENTATION: Tranexamic Acid 100 mg / ml Injection, 5 ml Ampoule

ROUTE: IV, IO or IM

INDICATIONS:

- Significant haemorrhage (or suspected significant haemorrhage) following trauma, with the first 3 hours of injury
- Severe head injury

ACTIONS:

- Anti-fibrinolytic which reduces the breakdown of blood clot

CONTRAINDICATIONS:

- Critical interventions required– do not delay interventions to administer TXA

CAUTIONS:

- Rapid injection might rarely cause hypotension
- History of blood clots

SIDE EFFECTS:

- Diarrhoea, Nausea, Vomiting

PREPARATION /ADMINISTRATION:

- Draw up 4 x 5ml vials into a syringe with a filter needle ideally as soon as IV or IO access gained
- First dose to be given over 1 minute
- Can be give IM if unable to gain access
- Repeat dose will be given at role 2

AGE	INITIAL DOSE	REPEAT DOSE	DOSE INTERVAL	VOLUME	MAX DOSE
Adult	2g	2 g (at Role 2)	N/A	20 ml (4 vials)	2 gram